

April 29 & 30 | Virtual

WAAL 2021

RISK & REWARD

www.wisconsinlibraries.org/WAAL-conference

THURSDAY APRIL 29

8:15-8:30

WELCOME

- Maureen Olle-LaJoie, WAAL Board President

8:30-9:45

KEYNOTE

Taking Risks: Connecting Through Real Stories

Megan McGee, Ex-Fabula Co-found & Executive Director

10:00-10:45

BREAKOUT SESSION 1

- What Would That Look Like Here? Adapting Instruction Ideas for Your Campus
- Break Out of Your K-12 Outreach Routine

11:00-11:45

BREAKOUT SESSION 2

- Primary Source Literacy in the Online Classroom
- Collaborations with Campus and Community Stakeholders

11:45-1:00

LUNCH

- WAAL Annual Member Meeting, 12:00pm-12:30pm

1:00-1:45

BREAKOUT SESSION 3

- Risky Writing: Ditching the Research Paper and Reaping the Rewards of More Authentic Assignments
- It Slices, It Dices, It Juliennes: The Multiple Uses of Faculty Publication Data
- Swim Lanes and Superpowers: Engaging Student Employees

FRIDAY APRIL 30

8:45-9:00

WELCOME

- Liz Kaune and Kate Otto, WAAL Conference Chairs

9:00-9:45

BREAKOUT SESSION 4

- Lessons Learned: Getting the Most Out of Library School
- Re-Imagining the Undergraduate Research Award

10:00-10:45

BREAKOUT SESSION 5

- A Risk-free Introduction to Open Textbooks
- Ready, Set, Engage! Making the Library a Center for Civic Preparation on Campus
- Extending Digital Collections for Teaching & Research

11:00-12:00

CONCURRENT EVENTS

- Lightning Talks
- Posters (available to view all conference)

12:00

CLOSING REMARKS

- Maureen Olle-LaJoie, WAAL Board President

12:05-12:30

WAAL BOARD & MEMBER DISCUSSION OPPORTUNITY

- Maureen Olle-LaJoie, WAAL Board President