Old Business

YSS Hour of Code

- 3 entries so far. Two from the same person, one from someone who is not a member at this time.
- Nine more entries were needed by March 30
- Caitlin will extend the deadline and send out another MemberClicks
- Sue is planning to submit and Julie and Caitlin have some ideas to fill in the gaps.
- Katie will contact her colleague and encourage her to send in her coding programs.
- Sarah will post to YSS blog.

YSS Powerhouse Presents

- Names of volunteers have been passed along to Julie by Sarah

WLA Nominations

- Names from volunteer survey were passed on to Terry by Sarah.

WAPL Program Committee

- Elizabeth and Emily met on March 27 to plan.
- Planning a social for 7PM and will need to contact the WAPL Co-Chairs
- Renew is the theme, so there will be a Board Game Café and two book walks, with books chosen by Emily and Elizabeth.
- Possibly making flower pens to pass out as a YSS visual.

WLA Conference Committee

- Claire is takin the lead on this
- WLA Program Committee Co-Chair responded favorably about YSS vetting programs.
- All volunteers wanted to work at WLA and Sarah is passing names along.
- Caitlin would like to do an Escape Room as part of the YSS Social
- Sue thinks that a coding resource roll out would be an excellent idea. Tessa will work with Caitlin on evaluating possibilities for this.

Regional Meetings

- April 13 Rice Lake/Bloomer meet up is set up.
• Fall Milwaukee Area Meetup in the works. Caitlin is working to coordinate with Angela Meyer to possibly create an all day event for the SE region.
• La Crosse/Sparta—possibly make it a preconference day, but the board was leaning towards a different day
  o YSS discussed having a two part coding program that would play into the YSS social and kick off the hour of code resource.
